

Labor, Health and Human Services and Education Appropriations
FY2010 Requests

Project Name	Purpose	Intended Recipient	Location	Amount Requested by Organization	Justification
Allen College	for allied health professionals workforce shortage project	Allen College	Waterloo, Iowa	$500,000	Support of Allied Health education provides highly trained healthcare professionals to alleviate critical workforce shortages and promote access to healthcare.
Hawkeye Community College	for Learning Through Collaboration technology program	Hawkeye Community College	Waterloo, Iowa	$662,000	Expand wireless teleconferencing to reduce cost to provide training to/for long-term care facilities, business and industry, and public safety.
Hawkeye Community College	for advanced manufacturing and training programs	Hawkeye Community College	Waterloo, Iowa	$750,000	Simulation center to expand training in manufacturing fields with intensified, shorter-duration courses with multiple exit points to employment in high-demand jobs
Hawkeye Community College	for health education and services center	Hawkeye Community College	Waterloo, Iowa	$790,000	Utilizes a local public/private partnership to respond to training needs for the high-demand areas of healthcare and public safety.
University of Northern Iowa	for Minorities in the Leadership of Education Program	University of Northern Iowa	Cedar Falls, Iowa	$250,000	The MILE program supports public school efforts to identify, develop, and promote racially/ethnically diverse teachers into school administration positions.
University of Northern Iowa	for Expanding 2+2 programs	University of Northern Iowa	Cedar Falls, Iowa	$500,000	Providing a teaching degree in elementary and middle level education for Iowa's place-bound, career changing, and non-traditional individuals.
University of Northern Iowa	for Center on Literacy, Language, & Disability Studies in Early Childhood Education	University of Northern Iowa	Cedar Falls, Iowa	$1,100,000	This project will increase the knowledge and skills of teachers to develop language and literacy skills in young children with disabilities.
University of Northern Iowa	for development of a micro-factory to impart advanced manufacturing education	University of Northern Iowa	Cedar Falls, Iowa	$1,300,000	Developing an innovative manufacturing education program to benefit regional industry, focusing on process design, automation, and quality principles.
Upper Iowa University	for education technology at the e-Center	Upper Iowa University	Fayette, Iowa	$2,100,000	In 20 words or less, please provide a justification as to why taxpayers should invest in this project. This response will be posted on the Senator's website.

Requests by Iowans were forwarded to the Committee on Appropriations on May 15, 2009.