Mr. Chuck Magro
Chief Executive Officer
Corteva Agriscience
9330 Zionsville Road
Indianapolis, IN 46268

Dear Mr. Magro,

This morning, we learned the news of Corteva spinning off its seed unit into a separate company. We write today to implore you to continue to invest in growth in Iowa by selecting Johnston, Iowa as your seed headquarters. It's a no-brainer considering the success you've seen thanks to hard working Iowans, innovators and family farmers. As you know, you already have 3,000 jobs in Iowa including senior leadership, nine research and development locations, ample test plots and the best growers in the world. Iowa is the number one commercial state for your business with $1.3 billion in sales.

Many of us were a part of Corteva's promise in 2019 to continue operations in Iowa. We look forward to working with you to make sure you keep this commitment to the people of Iowa. The history of Pioneer runs deep in our state dating back to 1920. Your roots are in Iowa, and we know they will continue to yield fields of opportunities as you continue to choose Iowa as your home.

Sincerely,

Chuck Grassley
