COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY

WASHINGTON, DC 20510-6275

April 30, 2025

VIA ELECTRONIC TRANSMISSION

The Honorable Pamela J. Bondi
Attorney General
Department of Justice
Washington, DC 202530

Dear Attorney General Bondi:

On April 22, 2025, the Justice Department began issuing notices of termination to numerous grant award recipients. These terminations impacted a number of training and technical assistance programs as well as an array of victim services. I have long been a strong supporter of law enforcement and crime victims, and I want to ensure that the Justice Department is prioritizing services to both the men and women bravely serving our communities and also victims of crime.

Accordingly, please answer the following questions by May 6, 2025:

- 1) Please explain the Justice Department's appeals process for terminated grant awards;
- 2) Please explain the Justice Department's process for paying out terminated awardees for services rendered, like those who use the Automated Standard Application for Payments (ASAP) system; and
- 3) Please explain what the Justice Department intends to do with grant awards that remain terminated.

Sincerely,

Charles E. Grassley
