VIA ELECTRONIC TRANSMISSION

Mr. Mark Pittella
Acting Director
U.S. Marshals Service

Dear Acting Director Pittella:

I write to request financial data and records relating to former U.S. Marshals Service Director Ronald Davis' travel and security detail. According to legally protected whistleblower disclosures, then-Director Davis may have engaged in improper and excessive travel at substantial cost to the taxpayer. I want to know if these allegations are true or not.

Accordingly, for Congress to conduct independent oversight of the USMS and its spending under Director Davis, please provide the following information no later than April 8, 2025:

1. For each year Ronald Davis was director provide the following with respect to his travel:
 - a. Total amount of money spent on domestic and foreign travel.
 - b. For each domestic and foreign trip, a breakdown to include:
 - i. total cost of the trip;
 - ii. the locations and dates of travel;
 - iii. the names and titles of each person that attended. In response, please make clear which persons were on his security detail;
 - iv. the cost of airline tickets;
 - v. the cost of rental vehicles;
 - vi. the cost of hotels;
 - vii. the cost of food; and
 - viii. all other costs.

Thank you for your prompt review and responses. If you have any questions, please contact Jace Pimentel and Tucker Akin on my Committee staff at (202) 224-5225.

Sincerely,

Charles E. Grassley
Chairman
Committee on the Judiciary
